TOUR OF ST. LOUIS

Thursday, June 14, 2012

You won't want to miss this guided bus tour of St. Louis which will kick off the CPI 75th Anniversary International Conference.

It's lunch on your own in "The Loop", where you can eat at Fitz's restaurant and watch the bottling of its famous root beer. Or take to the street, lined with shops and a variety of eateries.

See the fabulous Fox Theater. Opened in 1929 as a movie theater, it now hosts Broadway musicals and concerts. Its backstage walls are filled with famous autographs.

NEXT...

Relax on a driving tour of Forest Park, home to the 1904 World's Fair. Then head to the foot of The Gateway Arch, where you'll board a replica paddle wheeler riverboat for a sightseeing cruise on the Mississippi River.

Sign Up Now.

Cost is $55.00 per person.

Registration form is attached

Note: this tour requires minimal walking. The Mississippi River is quite calm but if you have a serious problem with seasickness, please let us know.
